Particular shape of the tip helps to catch the small lashes at the corners of the eye.

Empty area works like a reservoir: lashes are charged immediately and combed by the other side of the brush.

A photograph of a small, light-colored wooden boat filled with red rose petals. The boat is tilted, and the petals are scattered throughout its interior. The background is dark, and the overall mood is romantic and elegant. The text 'pierre cardin' is overlaid on the left side of the image.
